No. 622).—The method of Hubicki et al. (Ann. Univ. M. Curie-Skłodowska, 1950, 53), is applied to the analysis of Pb-Sn alloys. A sample of alloy (0.7 g) is dissolved by heat in 25 ml of conc. HNO<sub>3</sub> and the Sn is separated as β-stannic achi. The filtrate is evaporated to dryness and the residue is dissolved in 100 to 150 ml of cold water; 0.5 ml of conc. HNO<sub>3</sub> and 4 ml of H<sub>3</sub>PO<sub>4</sub> (sp. gr. 1.25) are added and the pH is adjusted to 4 by adding aq. NH<sub>3</sub> soln. The finely crystalline ppt. of PbHPO<sub>4</sub> is collected, washed, and dried to constant wt. at 200° C. The method is not applicable to Pb-Sb alloys; the ppt. of Sb<sub>2</sub>O<sub>3</sub> absorbs some Pb and the soln. of Pb(NO<sub>3</sub>)<sub>2</sub> is not free from Sb. E. HAVES

PERIODICAL: Izvestiya Akademii nauk SSSR, Seriya geograficheskaya, 1959, Nr 5, pp 117-120 (USSR)

ABSTRACT: The above mentioned conference took place on 29 May - 1 June 1959 in Kazimierz Dolny (Poland). In the second part the following Polish geographers reported on different economic problems of division into economic regions: S. Mahkowska - on workers' commuting in the Krakow wojewodstwo; M. Dobrowolska - on the influence of industrialization on the formation of regions and on the types of inhabited centers; L. Straszewicz - on the analysis of the bases of principles of development of economic regions as shown by the example of study of the Lodz industrial district; A. Wróbel - on the joint regions of passenger transportation in Poland; and L. Kosiński - on the study of the sphere of influence of Polish small towns. Other reports were read by: Professor Ja. Korfak (Czechoslovakia) - on "Immigration Basis of Czech Towns"; Kh. Marinkov (Bulgaria) on "Methods of Study of Economic Connections and Inter-regional Exchange"; M. Blazek (Czechoslovakia) - on "Problems of Development of Weakly Developed Rayons of the Pilsen Region"; G. Szadi (Hungary) on a "Method of Delimitation of Agricultural Regions"; and G. Schmidt-Bannar (E. Germany) on the "Problems of Regional Economics". Reports were also read by G. Tulipe (Belgium) and A. Schneider (W. Germany). Finally the last report on "The Economic Region in Economic Geography and in Perspective Planning" was read by Professor K. Dziewonski in which he tried to establish basic elements of planning and to generalize some of the problems of division.
